

On 5/15/20 a video titled “8 Misunderstood Scriptures About Unclean Meat” was posted by Bible Flock Box. Greg Sereda is the speaker.

Greg, you did a fantastic job of not proving your point. It’s also apparent you don’t understand English. The first verses you quote are from the New King James Version (NKJV) around 1:30.

“So He said to them, ‘Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him, because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?’” Mark 7:18-19 from the NKJV.

Carefully read what the NKJV says. It says the food enters a man’s stomach and is then eliminated. We understand that as a part of normal human physiology; you eat, the food goes into the stomach, then in to the small intestine, then into the colon and is eliminated as FECES. The NKJV says the food thus eliminated is PURIFIED. To be purified means to be made clean. The NKJV says feces is clean.

None of the other New Testament verses you used in any way establish the fact that you shouldn’t eat unclean meat. Furthermore there is NOTHING in the New Testament that proves you shouldn’t eat pig, etc. To show in the Bible that God forbade the use of unclean meats you have to go to the Old Testament. Keep in mind that early Adventists including Ellen G. White were pork eating carnivores until she had her vision on health.

By the way, this is coming from a Seventh-day Adventist who has been a vegetarian for over 50 years and who believes God not only forbids the use of unclean meats but would prefer we ate no flesh food at all.

Don’t try to make any part of the Bible say something it doesn’t say just because you wish to prove something.
